Compassionate Care Hospice

11th Hour Hospice Volunteer: Volunteers who will simply just "be there" during the final hours of life, even if it is just to hold the hand of the patient. This would be perfect for those with very flexible schedules, or even a "night owl". However, volunteers will be assigned based upon their availability. Training provided. Note: Vigil volunteers do not have to be ministers, they are specially trained volunteers who have the heart to "Just be there" when our patients need them most.
